PART C CLIENTS5.15 Client information and opening of accounts with Clients

- (1) Before a Participating Organisation opens a trading account for a Client, the Participating Organisation must:
- (a) obtain all essential information about the Client relevant to the services to be provided; and
 - (b) verify the Client's identity and the authenticity of the application to open a trading account with the Participating Organisation.

[Refer to Directives No. 5-001 and 5.15-001]

- (2) If the Client represents that the Client is trading on behalf of another person, the Participating Organisation may open a trading account for the Client only if:
- (a) the Client is an Authorised Nominee or Exempt Authorised Nominee; and
 - (b) the Participating Organisation brings to the notice of the Client, the Client's obligation under Rule 5.15(8).

[Refer to Directive No. 5.15-001]

- (3) A Participating Organisation must enter into a written agreement with a Client. The written agreement must set out the terms and conditions for the operation of the Client's trading account and must include the Client's obligation to comply with these Rules and Directives, whether these Rules and Directives apply directly or indirectly to the Client.
- (4) A Participating Organisation must record and maintain up-to-date relevant information on the Participating Organisation's Clients, their trading accounts and trades executed in their trading accounts. For the avoidance of doubt, trades executed in the Client's trading account in this Rule include the trades executed on the stock market of the Exchange or Recognised Stock Exchanges.

[Refer to Directive No. 5-001]

- (5) A Participating Organisation must clearly identify the Securities Account where the securities arising from all dealings in the trading account must be credited into or debited from.
- (6) A Participating Organisation must obtain the Client's confirmation and undertaking in writing that the Beneficial Owner of the securities in the trading account and the Securities Account is the same unless the Client is the Beneficial Owner of the securities in the trading account and the Securities Account.
- (7) If the Securities Account holder is not the Client, the Participating Organisation must obtain from the Client, a written authorisation and consent from the Securities Account holder permitting the following:
- (a) effecting any entry in the Securities Account arising from any trade executed in the Client's trading account; and
 - (b) the exercise of any rights by the Participating Organisation, Exchange or Clearing House over the securities held in the Securities Account arising from any trade executed in the Client's trading account.

Chapter 5 – Conduct of Business

- (8) If requested by the Exchange, a Participating Organisation must require a Client to disclose (and the Client must disclose) information and documents in relation to any dealing in securities in respect of the Client's trading account.
- (9) The information referred to in Rule 5.15(8) includes information whether any dealing in the Client's trading account is carried out on another person's behalf and in such instance, the name of, and particulars sufficient to identify such person. If that person is not the Beneficial Owner of the securities, the Client must also be required to procure the particulars of the Beneficial Owner of the securities.

5.16 Doing business with Clients

- (1) A Participating Organisation and Registered Person must act:
 - (a) with due skill, care and diligence;
 - (b) honestly and fairly; and
 - (c) in the best interests of the Participating Organisation's Clients.

- (2) A Participating Organisation and Registered Person must make adequate and accurate disclosure of the risks, benefits and conflicts of interests to the Clients in the Participating Organisation's and Registered Person's dealings with the Clients.

[Refer to Directives No. 5-001 and 5-002]

- (3) A Participating Organisation must forward all communication and documents relating to the affairs of the Client directly to the Client unless the Client has authorised in writing for such communication and documents to be sent to a third party.
- (4) A Participating Organisation must account for and adequately safeguard a Client's assets.

[Refer to Directive No. 5-001]

- (5) A Participating Organisation must, in relation to a complaint from a Client (whether written or otherwise) relating to the Participating Organisation's business:
 - (a) handle the complaint in a timely and appropriate manner; and
 - (b) take steps to investigate and respond immediately to the complainant.

[Refer to Directive No. 5-001]

- (6) A Participating Organisation and Registered Person must protect the secrecy of the Client's information in the Participating Organisation's possession unless:
 - (a) the Client authorises the disclosure of the information in writing;
 - (b) the law requires the disclosure of the information;
 - (c) the Exchange or any other relevant body or authority (whether in or outside of Malaysia) requires the disclosure of the information;
 - (d) the information is already publicly available; or

Chapter 5 – Conduct of Business

- (e) the information is in the form of a summary or collection of information set out in such manner as does not enable information relating to any particular Client to be ascertained from the information.
- (7) The Exchange may direct a Participating Organisation to refrain from trading for any Client in any of the following circumstances:
- (a) in relation to a request made under Rule 5.15(8), until the information and document requested is furnished by the Client or where the Client refuses to furnish the same; or
 - (b) where an act or omission by the Client in relation to or arising from any transaction in securities causes, aids or facilitates a breach of these Rules or Directives.
